

Table of

I. Middle Platonism and its most significant “discoveries”	13
1. The birth of Middle Platonism and its major representatives	13 14
2. The matter of “the School of Gaius”	21
3. The matter of the authorship of Didaskalikos
4. The most important “discoveries” of the philosophy of Middle Platonism: Regaining supernaturality and transcendence	29
5. Practical consequences of Middle Platonic “discoveries”	37
	51
II. Meta-philosophical issues	51
1. The essence and spirit of Plato’s philosophy	67
2. Philosopher	73
3. Contemplation and actions	78
4. The puzzle of the philosophy	83
5. The mysterious aspects of philosophy
	89
III. The Middle Platonic theory of cognition in Alcinous’s lectures	89
1. Gnoseological issues: The theory of natural concepts	115
2. Dialectic research	125
3. Syllogistics	132
4. The theory of names	135
5. Mathematics	140

Table of Content

IV. Middle Platonic Metaphysics	151
1. The theory of principles	151
2. The theory of matter	156
3. The theory of ideas as God's thoughts	161
4. The theory of God	177
5. Theory of quality properties	231
V. Middle Platonic Cosmology	235
1. Cosmogony	235
2. The theory of elements	246
3. The soul of the world	250
4. The theory of celestial spheres	257
5. The theory of time	261
VI. Middle Platonic demonology	265
VII. Middle Platonic Anthropology	277
1. The creation of the human soul: The theory of metempsychosis	277
2. The theory of destiny	290
3. The human soul and the body	293
4. The matter of the immortality of the soul	299
VIII. Middle Platonic Ethics	309
1. The highest good and happiness of man	309
2. The doctrine of "likeness to God" (homoiosis theo)	315
3. The theory of virtues and flaws	324
3.1. Cardinal virtues	324
3.2. Virtues as dispositions	335
3.3. Vices	337
3.4. Primary and secondary virtues	339
3.5. Virtues as peaks and means	341

Table of Content

4. Passions	344
5. Pleasure	347
6. The theories of human freedom and of the involuntary nature of evil	350
7. The no-harm doctrine	353
8. Teachings on love and friendship	356
IX. Political concepts of Middle Platonism	361
Bibliography	363
Index of names	373
Index of ancient authors	373
Index of contemporary authors	375