

Table of Contents

John Paul II: Natural Law and Human Rights

Cardinal Gerhard Ludwig Müller The Popes as guardians of human dignity	9
Cardinal Willem Jacobus Eijk Human rights in a secularized society	24
Zbignevs Stankevičs Interreligious Cooperation for Family Values: Latvian Experience	42
Bogdan Szlachta Entitlements/rights, dignity and liberal democracy. Against the backdrop of the text by Cardinal Gerhard Müller “The Popes as Guardians of Human Dignity”	59
Jorge Nicolás Lafferriere The teachings of John Paul II and the paradoxes of the right to life in the International Human Rights discourse	88
María Inés Franck John Paul II and respect for local cultures	107
Javier Borrego Borrego Does the Strasbourg European Court protect all human rights equally?	116
Aleksander Stępkowski Human Rights: is the concept truly coherent with the Christian moral teaching?	127

Piotr Mazurkiewicz
Christian vs liberal conceptions of human rights 153

Max Silva Abbott
Do human rights really protect us? The evolution of the concept of human rights influenced by the work of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights 168

Ján Figel
St. John Paul II's Natural Law Legacy and International Human Rights 191

Miscellanea

Stanisław Fel, Jarosław Kozak, Marek Wodawski, Jakub Isański
Dilemmas Faced by Polish Migrants in the UK Concerning Brexit and Return Migration 201

Mirela Lončar
*Transnational religious actors and international order
– the case of the Gülen Movement* 223

Marcin Supinski
The Polish-Belarusian border: between mercy and the reason of state 236

Nicolas Bauer
John Paul II, the right to life and abortion 254

Reviews and discussions

Krzysztof Wojciechowski
*Naród w kontrze do imperium
Recenzja książki: Yoram Hazony: „Pochwała państwa narodowego”
Wydawnictwo Teologia Polityczna, Warszawa 2023* 267

Jakub Greloff
*Sprawozdanie z pobytu naukowego na Uniwersytecie Stanforda i udziału
w Hoover Institution International Seminar Program 2023* 273