

Contents

Foreword	11
List of abbreviations	15
Introduction	19

CHAPTER ONE

Freedom of Conscience and Confession in the Historical and Legal Perspective

1. Etymology of the terms “religion”, “confession”, and “conscience”	30
2. The concept of “freedom of conscience and confession” and the concept of “freedom of conscience and religion”	48
3. Freedom of conscience and confession as a subjective right	51
4. The origin and evolution of the concept of “freedom of conscience and confession” in light of secular philosophy from ancient philosophy to modern times	60
5. Freedom of conscience and religion in Christian philosophy	83
6. Freedom of conscience of a minor and parental authority	100

CHAPTER TWO

Minors in the Historical and Legal Perspective

1. Children in light of the humanities	112
2. The evolution of children’s rights	116
3. A child’s religiosity	120

CHAPTER THREE

Minors in Light of Legal Regulations

1. The child in international law	126
---	-----

2. Minors in Polish law	134
2.1. Minors within the meaning of Polish civil and family law	134
2.2. Minors within the meaning of Polish criminal law	140
3. Minors in light of the canon law of the Catholic Church	147

CHAPTER FOUR

Freedom of Conscience and Confession of Minors in Poland from 1918 to 1939

1. Constitutional scope of the freedom of conscience and confession of minors	155
1.1. Based on the March Constitution of 1921	158
1.2. Based on the April Constitution of 1935	177
2. Freedom of conscience and confession in light of the Concordat of 10 February 1925	178
3. The scope and guarantees of the freedom of conscience and confession of minors in light of educational regulations	182
3.1. Education law until 1932	182
3.2. Education law after 1932	187
4. Freedom of conscience and confession in light of individual religious laws	189
4.1. Jewish religious communities (1927)	189
4.2. Eastern Old Believers' Church with no clerical hierarchy (1928)	194
4.3. Muslim Religious Union in the Republic of Poland (1936)	196
4.4. Karaite Religious Union in the Republic of Poland (1936)	197
4.5. Evangelical Church of the Augsburg Confession in the Republic of Poland (1936)	199
4.6. Polish Autocephalous Orthodox Church (1938)	201
4.7. Other legally recognised churches and religious associations	204
4.8. Other churches and religious associations not legally recognised	205
5. Guarantee of freedom of conscience and confession in civil law ..	210
6. Guarantee of freedom of conscience and confession in criminal law	219
6.1. Legal status until 1932	219
6.2. Legal status after 1932	220

CHAPTER FIVE

The Scope and Guarantees of the Freedom of Conscience and Confession of Minors During the Period of the Polish People's Republic

1. System of sources of law in the period of the Polish People's Republic	237
2. Freedom of conscience and confession of minors on the grounds of constitutional provisions	241
2.1. The so-called "Small Constitution" of 1947	241
2.2. Constitution of the Polish People's Republic of 22 July 1952	242
3. Freedom of conscience and confession on the basis of the Decree of 5 August 1949 – Law on Associations	249
4. Freedom of conscience and confession of minors on the grounds of the educational laws	251
4.1. Legal status until 1956	251
4.2. Legal status in the years 1956–1961	257
4.3. Legal status in the years 1961–1990	264
5. Guarantee of protection of freedom of conscience and confession of minors on the basis of criminal law	265
5.1. Legal status before 1969	265
5.2. Legal status after 1969	268
6. Protection of the freedom of conscience and confession of minors on the basis of civil law	269
6.1. Legal status before 1964	269
6.2. Legal status after 1964	272

CHAPTER SIX

Guarantees of Freedom of Conscience and Confession of Minors in Poland after 1989

1. Constitutional guarantees	297
1.1. The so-called "Small Constitution" of 1992	297
1.2. Constitution of the Republic of Poland of 2 April 1997	298
2. Ratified acts of international law	311
3. Guarantees of EU law after 1 May 2004	328
4. Guarantees on the basis of the Polish Concordat of 28 July 1993	340

5. Statutory guarantees	347
5.1. Law on Guarantees of Freedom of Conscience and Confession of 17 May 1989	347
5.2. The Education System Act of 1991	351
5.3. Individual religious laws	366
6. Guarantees of the freedom of conscience of minors in other branches of the law	369
7. Freedom of conscience and confession of minors in criminal law .	390
Conclusion.....	409
Bibliography	417