

INDEX

INTRODUCTION		13
LIMITATIONS		17
BACKGROUNDS		19
The Role of Languages		19
Identification of Languages		20
Situation in England before introducing modern languages		22
The Latin situation in England		25
Latin projects		27
Latin teaching materials		28
First Thousand Words in Latin		28
Latin for Beginners		28
Latin for Kids		29
Learning Latin through Mythology		29
Latin Words Sticker Book		29
Minimus		30
Prima Latina (An Introduction to Christian Latin)		30
Song School Latin, Books 1 and 2		30
Telling Tales in Latin		31
Primary teachers		31
The Spanish situation		33
A starting point: General Education Law in 1970		33
LODE: Organic Law Regulating the Right to Education in 1985		34
LOGSE: Organic Law on the General Education System in 1990		35
LOCE: Organic Law on the Quality of Education in 2002		36
LOE: Organic Education Law in 2006		38
LOMCE: Organic Law for the Improvement of Educational Quality in 2013		40
Justification		43
Contributions of Latin		48
Purposes		51
Methodology		52

TEST THE WATERS IN SPAIN | 53

- Premises | 53
- Analysis and processing choice of the Latin language | 53
- Methodologies | 54
- The questionnaire | 55
- The children' profiles | 56
- Parents' profile | 57
 - Part 1. Languages and their importance* | 58
 - Part 2. Preconceptions about Latin* | 60
 - Part 3. Latin in the Spanish curriculum* | 65
- Conclusions | 67

INTRODUCTION OF LATIN IN SPANISH PRIMARY EDUCATION | 69

- Premises | 69
- How to include Latin | 69
- A way to introduce Latin | 73
- Who teach Latin in primary education? | 76
 - Resources for Latin in Spanish primary education* | 78
- How do we teach Latin in primary schools? | 79
- What to teach? | 84
- Presentation of the books | 85
- Analysis of the books | 86
 1. The nominative case | 86
 2. Subject and adjective agreement | 86
 3. The present tense of the verb to be (esse) | 87
 4. The present of the indicative | 87
 5. The imperative | 87
 6. The accusative | 88
 7. Prepositions | 88
 8. The derivatives | 89
- Conclusions | 92

UNIT DESIGN | 94

- Premises | 94
- The Frog and the Ox | 94
- Phaedrus and his fables | 95
- Importance of the adaptations The Frog and the Ox | 96
- Stage, unit and course | 97
- Pupils at age 8 | 97
- Legal basis | 98
- Adaptation to the context | 99
- Adaptation to diversity | 99
- General objectives and contents | 100
- Objective of the primary education | 101
- Objectives of the stage | 102
- General objectives of the unit | 103
- General objectives in Maths | 104
- General Contents in Maths | 105

General objectives in Language	105
General contents in Language	106
General objective in a foreign language	107
General contents in foreign language	108
General objectives in art	109
General contents in art	110
General objective of the knowledge of the natural, social and cultural environment	110
General contents of Knowledge of the natural, social and cultural environment	111
General objectives in Physical Education	112
General contents in Physical Education	113
Structure	113
Activities	114
Specific Latin contents of the entire unit	122
Competences	123
Multiple intelligence	124
Learning methodology and strategies	124
Space and grouping	125
Spaces	126
Resources	126
Relation with the contents of Key Stage 2	126
Sequencing	127
Evaluation	128
Specific evaluation	129
Evaluation of teaching process	131
Conclusions	131
AN EXPERIENCE	 134
Premises	134
First contact with the schools and presentation of the materials	134
Description of the school	135
Profile of the classroom	136
Profile of the teacher	136
Space and grouping	136
Teaching unit	137
Planning of the teaching unit	137
Previous situation	138
The Frog and the Ox: in practice	138
Methodology of The Frog and the Ox	143
Consideration of the practice with The Frog and the Ox	144
Consideration of Teacher about The Frog and the Ox	145
Adaptation to diversity	145
Elements to improve	145
Conclusions	146
FEEDBACK	 148
Premises	148
Questionnaires for the students	148
Analysis of the answers	148

Table n. 34: Parents' impressions | 152

Table n. 35: Utility of Teaching about Latin and Classical Civilisation | 153

Table n. 36: Latin and Classical Civilisation Studies | 153

Table n. 37: Introduction of Latin and Classical Civilisation in Primary Education | 154

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table n. 1: LOGSE: Organic Law on the General Education System in 1990	36
Table n. 2: LOCE: Organic Law on the Quality of Education in 2002	37
Table n. 3: LOE: Organic Education Law in 2006	39
Table n. 4: LOMCE: Organic Law for the Improvement of Educational Quality in 2013	41
Table n. 5: Numbers and genders of the students	57
Table n. 6: Age and education of the parents	57
Table n. 7: Gender of the parents	58
Table n. 8: Languages and their importance	59
Table n. 9: Age of parents that studied Latin	59
Table n. 10: Gender of parents that studied Latin	59
Table n. 11: The interest in the Latin language	61
Table n. 12: The use of the Latin language	62
Table n. 13: Level of learning difficulty	63
Table n. 14: Spanish roots	64
Table n. 15: Latin and cultural heritage	64
Table n. 16: Latin and the labour market	65
Table n. 17: Latin enriches our personal culture	65
Table n. 18: Introducing Latin in primary schools	66
Table n. 19: Parents in favour to proposing Latin in elementary schools	66
Table n. 20: Parents not in favour to proposing Latin in elementary schools	67
Table n. 21: Latin and gender	67
Table n. 22: Presentation of the Latin books for children	85
Table n. 23: The Frog and the Ox: Structure	114
Table n. 24: Places	126
Table n. 25: The Frog and the Ox: Relation with KS2	127
Table n. 26: The Frog and the Ox: Sequencing	127
Table n. 27: Specific Evaluation	129
Table n. 28: Teaching units weekly programme	137
Table n. 29: Considerations about the Fable of The Frog and the Ox	149
Table n. 30: Favourite Elements	149
Table n. 31: What the Group Learned	150
Table n. 33: Parents' Awareness of Children's Activities	151

Question 1: Did you like the story of the Frog and the Ox? Why? | 148

Question 2: Write the elements or things you like the most about the teaching units | 149

Question 3: Did you learn something from the Frog and the Ox? | 149

Question 4: Would you like to read other myths or other stories with Latin? | 150

Table n. 32: Further Interest in Latin and Classical Civilisation | 150

Questionnaire – Parents | 150

Analysis of the answers | 151

Question 1: Did your son/daughter tell you about the new activity they did at school? | 151

Question 2: What do you think about it? | 151

Question 3: Do you think that the activities related to the Latin language and classical civilisation have been useful and interesting for your son/daughter? | 152

Question 4: Did you study Latin or classical civilisation? | 153

Question 5: Would you be in favour of introducing Latin language and classical civilisation in a very dynamic and interesting way in primary education? | 153

Teacher's questionnaire | 154

Analysis of the answers | 155

Question 1: Before starting to put the teaching units into practice what did you think? | 155

Question 2: Do you think that the teaching materials were adequate? | 155

Question 3: What do you think about Latin language and classical civilisation? | 155

Question 4: What do you think about Latin language in primary education? | 155

Question 5: Provide an evaluation The Frog and the Ox teaching unit. | 155

Question 6: Offer tips to improve the teaching units. | 155

Conclusions | 156

CONCLUSIONS | 158

The whole experience | 158

The future of Latin in Spanish primary education | 168

ANNEXES | 170

REFERENCES | 199

WEB REFERENCES | 203