

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	9
Introduction	11
I. Judaism and Jesus Movement	15
1. Holy Land of Israel in Jesus' Day	15
2. Jesus Movement	17
3. First Community	18
4. Hellenists	19
5. Decline of Jerusalem Church	21
Conclusion	22
Bibliography	23
II. Christian-Jewish Relations in historical perspective	25
1. Dialogical Position	25
2. Christian Discovery of Judaism	26
3. Brief History of Jewish-Christian Relations	27
3.1. Apostle Paul	28
3.2. Parting of Ways	29
3.3. Church Fathers	30
3.4. Middle Ages	32
3.5. Reformation	33
3.6. Enlightenment	33
3.7. Post-Second World War Period	34
Conclusion	37
Bibliography	37
III. Christian-Jewish dialogue in theological perspective	39
1. Common Roots	39
1.1. "Thou shalt love him as thyself" (Lev. 19,34)	39
1.2. Holy Scriptures	40
1.3. Jews and Christians Understand Each Other as the People of God	42
1.4. Jews and Christians Profess One God, the Creator and Redeemer	43

1.5. Liturgy Service	44
1.6. Value of History and Its Fulfillment in God	45
2. Divergence of Ways	46
2.1. Belief in Jesus, the Christ	47
2.2. Interpretation of Scripture	48
2.3. Christian Community and People of God	49
2.4. Differently Developed Piety	49
Conclusion	50
Bibliography	51
IV. Logic of Unity. Eastern Orthodox Christianity	55
1. Clue to Orthodoxy	56
2. Constantine and Byzantine Civilization	58
3. Contemporary Times	60
4. Dialogue between Orthodox and Roman-Catholic Church	62
5. Dialogue in Love and Truth	64
Conclusion	67
Bibliography	68
V. The Age of Reformation	69
1. Important Theological Themes for Martin Luther	69
1.1. Justification by Faith	69
1.2. Law and Gospel	70
1.3. Theology of the Cross	70
2. Radical Discipleship. The Anabaptist	71
3. Sovereignty of God. Reformed Christianity	73
4. Church of England and Puritan Movement	75
4.1. England's Break with Rome	76
4.2. Puritanism: New Life and New World	77
Bibliography	79
VI. Church Reform in Historical Context	81
1. Historical Background	81
2. Vatican II on Church Reform	85
3. Church Reform in Ecumenical Context	87
Bibliography	90
VII. Origins of Ecumenical Movement	91
1. Institutional Face of Ecumenism	92
2. Ecumenism and Orthodoxy	93
3. Vatican II and Roman-Catholic Ecumenism	95
4. Engaging in Dialogue	96
5. Hope of Ecumenism	97
Conclusion	98
Bibliography	99

VIII. Ecumenical Theology	101
1. Religions and Ecumenical Theology	101
2. Towards a Dialogical Theology	104
3. Some Implications for Ecumenical Theology	107
Bibliography	108
IX. Document From Conflict to Communion Some Considerations	109
1. Rediscovering Unity	109
2. Lund Principle	110
3. Twentieth-century Catholic Research on Luther	111
Conclusion	115
X. Roman-Catholic Dialogue with Classical Pentecostals. Challenges and Opportunities	117
1. Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements	118
2. Roman Catholics and Pentecostals	119
3. Five Phases of Dialogue	121
3.1. Charisms, Scripture, and Tradition	121
3.2. Faith and Religious Experience, Speaking in Tongues, and Mary	122
3.3. Perspectives on Koinonia	123
3.4. Evangelization, Proselytism and Common Witness	124
3.5. Baptism in the Spirit and Christian Initiation: Biblical and Patristic Perspectives	126
4. Polish Christian Forum, One Example of Multilateral Dialogue	127
Conclusion	127
Bibliography	129
XI. Exchange of gifts. Experience of Global Christian Forum	131
Introduction	131
1. Spiritual Impulse	132
2. Sharing Faith Journeys	135
3. Exploring Way for Contemporary Ecumenism	139
Conclusion	141
Bibliography	142
XII. Marriage in Jewish thought	143
1. Holiness and Marriage	144
2. Tradition and Change	145
Bibliography	147
XIII. Christian Understandings of Marriage	149
Introduction	149
1. Marriage in the Early Church	150
2. Brief History of Christian Wedding	152
3. Sacrament of Love (Eastern Orthodox)	153

3.1. Nuptial Mystery	153
3.2. Orthodox Married Life	154
4. Reformation	155
5. Marriage in Religious Traditions	158
Conclusion	159
Bibliography	160
XIV. Marriage and Family in Protestant and Evangelical understanding	163
1. Early Christian families	163
2. Medieval Catholic Background	164
3. Reformation Response	166
4. Protestant Models of Marriage	166
4.1. Marriage Social Dimensions (Lutheranism)	166
4.2. Calvinist Covenantal Model	168
4.3. Marriage as Little Commonwealth (Anglicanism)	169
5. Evangelical Christianity	171
5.1. History and Overview	171
5.2. Evangelical Views of Family Relations	172
Conclusion	175
Bibliography	175
XV. Sanctification as an ecumenical theme	177
Introduction	177
1. Biblical Concept of Holiness	178
2. Pattern of Sanctification	181
3. God and His People in Sanctification	183
4. Sanctification as a Process	185
5. Holiness Movement	186
Conclusion	187
Bibliography	188
General Conclusion	189
Spis treści	193