

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	5
I. DIVINE MERCY IN THE OLD TESTAMENT	7
1. The most important terms concerning Divine mercy	7
2. God merciful and just.	10
a. God merciful	10
b. God just and severe	11
c. God's justice related to God's mercy	15
3. Psalm 50 (51) as a hymn on Divine mercy	20
a. General remarks	20
b. The call for God's mercy	23
c. The need to be cleansed by God from sins	25
d. The birth in the sin	28
e. The desire for returning to God	32
f. The need of the new spirit.	35
g. The desire for salvation and friendship with God	38
4. The confession of sins.	42
5. God's justice and mercy in the time of Hebrew monarchy	43
a. The result of Solomon's sins.	46
b. The actions of the kings of Israel	49
c. The actions of the kings of Judah.	56
d. The fall of the Kingdom of Judah	68
e. General remarks about the Kingdoms of Judah and Israel	72
6. The sorrow of the people after the fall of Jerusalem	73
a. The angst of the people of Israel in captivity	74
b. Prophet Jeremiah's lamentations and prophecy	76
c. Ezekiel's message of consolation	79
d. Prophet's Baruch sorrow and prayer	81

7. The return from Babylon as a sign of God's mercy.	84
a. The restoring of the Temple and worship	85
b. The idea of thanksgiving in prayer	87
II. DIVINE MERCY IN THE NEW TESTAMENT	93
1. Divine mercy in the Gospels	94
a. God showing his mercy	94
b. Christian vocation to be merciful	96
c. Forgiveness of sins as a sign of Divine mercy	101
2. Divine mercy in the Apostolic Letters	104
a. Divine mercy presented by Saint Paul	105
b. Divine mercy presented by Peter and the other Apostles	111
3. General remarks about Divine mercy in the New Testament	115
III. GOD'S MERCY EXPERIENCED IN THE EARLY CHURCH IN THE SECUNDA PAENITENTIA	119
1. Moral purity and forgiving of sins in the post-apostolic times	119
2. Baptism as a spiritual washing	122
3. Divine mercy in the Clement's Letter to the Corinthians	125
a. Clement as the successor of Peter	125
b. The proclamation of the message of Divine mercy	127
c. The appeal for conversion and reconciliation	130
4. The secunda paenitentia proclaimed by Hermas	133
a. The character of Hermas' visions.	134
b. The vision of the Matron	135
c. The Vision of the Shepherd	143
5. The secunda paenitentia presented by Tertullian	146
6. The secunda paenitentia for great sins rejected by Tertullian	151
IV. THE THEOLOGICAL CONSIDERATIONS ON DIVINE MERCY AND THE PRACTICE OF REMISSION OF SINS IN THE EAST	157
1. The concept of Clement of Alexandria	157
a. The function of the Logos.	158
b. The Church as the School of the Logos	160
α. The first level of formation	161
β. The second level of formation	162
γ. The third level of formation.	165

c. God's mercy and penitential practice	173
d. The apatheia as a basis of moral stability	176
2. Saint Basil of Caesarea	178
a. General remarks on Divine mercy	179
b. The exhortation to the fallen monks	183
a. The exhortation to the first monk	183
β. The exhortation to the second monk	187
c. The exhortation to a fallen virgin	189
3. Saint Gregory of Nyssa	195
a. Mercy as one of Divine qualities	196
b. Mercy as the principal cause of Christ's passion	201
c. Eternal mercy of God manifested in time	205
d. Divine mercy expressed in human terms	208
4. Saint Gregory of Nazianzus	210
a. The need of imploring God's mercy in difficult situations	212
b. God's mercy in the personal life of the Christians	217
c. Five kinds of baptism	219
d. Mercy and charity	223
5. Saint John Chrysostom	226
a. God's mercy as a reason of being elected by God	227
b. Mercy as a fundamental Christian virtue	233
c. Helping the poor people in the spirit of mercy	237
d. Showing mercy as a work for eternity	242
6. Remission of sins practiced in the pastoral practice	246
V. THE REMISSION OF SINS BASED ON DIVINE MERCY
IN THE WESTERN THEOLOGY AND PRACTICE	253
1. Saint Cyprian's call for God's mercy and repentance.	253
a. General remarks on God's mercy	255
b. The lapsi and their seeking for intercession	258
c. The abusive practices in reconciliation	261
d. The need to be absolved by the Church ministers	265
e. Cyprian's reaction to laxity	268
2. God's mercy and the remission of sins according to Saint Ambrose	270
a. Mercy as a Christian virtue	270
b. The Church as a place of God's mercy	274

3. God's mercy according to Hilary of Poitiers	279
a. Christ's mercy towards people	280
b. Mercy as the main motive of forgiveness of sins	282
4. Divine mercy according to Saint Augustine	285
a. Seeking for God and his mercy.	287
b. Conversion.	292
c. God's mercy and remission of sins.	294
d. Divine mercy acting in the Church	298
e. The Biblical explanation of the priestly absolution	302
f. The human mercy as a seed for the future.	304
5. Caesarius of Arles as a preacher of Divine mercy	308
a. God's mercy as a fruit of God's love	309
b. Great number of sinners	312
c. God's mercy and human mercy	314
c. God's mercy and God's justice	319
6. Leo's the Great teaching on Divine mercy and his regulations in the penitential matter.	322
a. God's justice and God's mercy	323
b. Mercy and charity	328
c. Regulations in the penitential matter	332
VI. THE APPLICATION OF THE IDEA OF DIVINE MERCY
IN OUR TIMES	337
1. The contribution of Sister Faustina	337
2. The contribution of John Paul II	339
a. The teaching about Divine mercy	340
b. The teaching about the need of penitence	344
3. The contribution of Pope Francis	346
CONCLUSION	350
BIBLIOGRAPHY	352
Abbreviations.	352
Bible editions	354
Pontifical and conciliar documents	354
Patristic sources	354
Instrumenta laboris	361
The works on the subject	362
Other works	370