

Table of Contents

Introduction to the English edition	11
Introduction	13
Chapter One.
Transformations of religious life. Historical perspective and basic definitions	23
Theological accounts of consecrated life	23
The history of religious life from the fourth century to the 1970s	35
Secularization of monasteries	48
Revival of monasteries in the nineteenth and twentieth century	51
The history of religious orders in Poland	54
Secularization of monasteries in Poland	59
The revival of monasteries in the nineteenth and twentieth century	63
Religious orders and the development of civilization	66
Chapter Two.
Changes in religious life since the 1970s in quantitative terms	71
Global perspective	71
European perspective	79
Changes in Central and Eastern European countries	86
Religious priests and religious brothers in various types of religious orders	90
Religious orders in Poland today – number and scope of activity	92
Changes in the number of religious – explanatory hypotheses	100

Chapter Three.

Sociological studies of religious orders	111
Max Weber's studies in monasticism	112
Rachfahl's criticism of the connection between monastic and Puritan asceticism	123
Silber's theory of the autonomization of the economic sphere	126
Orders and the disciplinary society in Michel Foucault's work	127
Sociological studies of religious orders since the turn of the 1960s and 1970s	134
Research focusing on religious orders	136
Areas of sociological research on monasticism	141
Sociological concepts of religious life	142
Socio-historical analyses	148
The American tradition: religious orders as organizations, and the Weberian tradition	149
Monographic studies	153
Economy	156
New monastic communities	159
Studies of Central and Eastern Europe	160
Studies of religious life outside Europe and North America	162
Vocations to religious life	164
Sexual offences and violations in the context of religious life	164
The Polish tradition of studies of religious orders	166
The concept of the sociology of religious orders developed by Rev. Witold Zdaniewicz	171
Studies by Sr Jadwiga Cyman	176
Marta Trzebiatowska's studies of women religious	180
Monastic inspirations beyond sociology – an additional note	181
Towards a relational sociology of religious life: from order-centred perspective to a relational approach	182

Chapter Four.
Original research on Cistercian monasteries in relation to tourism, economy, and collective memory	193
A note on methodology	193
Development and specificity of the Cistercians in Poland and around the world	196
Relations connected with tourism, economy, and promotion	207
Tourism, development, and the economy in local discourse	216
Tourism and changes in the functioning of monasteries	221
Relations with the collective memory	224
Conclusion	239
Appendix 1.
Scenario for individual interviews (Szczyrzyc, Jędrzejów, Sulejów, Bierzwnik)	243
Appendix 2.
Scenario for individual interviews (Wąchock)	247
Methodological appendix	249
References	253
Index	275